

14 June 2022

ETAF Conference

Professional regulation: a cornerstone for curbing down abusive tax avoidance

@ Stanhope Hotel,
Rue du Commerce 9, 1000 Brussels

As the regulation of tax advice in the EU is coming back into the spotlight with the recent announcement of the European Commission, ETAF is delighted to invite you to discuss how a regulated tax consultancy sector can make a difference, with tax advisers helping the businesses to pay their fair share of taxes, playing an important role in ensuring tax compliance and hence contributing to the tax revenues of the States.

14:30 - Coffee reception

15:00 - Welcome address from Philippe Arraou, President of ETAF

15:15 - Panel discussion, moderated by Todd Buell, Tax journalist at Law360:

- Benjamin Angel, Director for direct taxation, tax coordination, economic analysis and evaluation at the European Commission
- MEP Markus Ferber, Vice-President of the FISC subcommittee in the European Parliament
- Sarah Godar, Researcher at the EU Tax Observatory
- Philippe Vanclooster, former partner at PwC and Board member of ITAA

16:25 - Concluding remarks by Philippe Arraou, President of ETAF

16:30 - Small reception

Simultaneous interpretation EN-FR-DE
The conference will be livestreamed on ETAF social media